

CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

Name of the Company: Fiddiam

Address: Luxembourg

Name(s) and title(s))... Dr. Stéphane Villemin
(the Candidate in what follows), considers acquiring 100% of the shares of the Company (the Company), which has mandated the JSC Consultants Company (the Consultants) to take part in the organization of such a deal. In what follows, the word "Parties" refers to the Candidate, the Company and the Consultant.

The Candidate has expressed its interest in the Company to the Consultants, which itself has relayed this expression of interest to the owners of the Company who have agreed to study with the Candidate the conditions under which the considered operation could be organised and achieved.

During some past and future meetings between the Candidate, the Consultants, and the Company, information on the Company has been and/or will be passed along and shared.

Taking into consideration the damages that could result for the Company from the disclosure of these information towards third Parties, the Candidate commits to consider the information he has received and will receive as strictly confidential.

Consequently :

1, the Candidate commits:

- not to share this information or part of it with any third party,
- should this information or part of it be necessarily communicated to a third party, to ask for and receive written permission from the Consultants before communicating them to any outsider.

2, the Candidate agrees that, if any disclosure of information for which it would be proved as responsible and for which it would not have received permission, causes any harm, liability or loss to the Company, the Candidate would have to indemnify the Company for the said damages.

3, the Candidate commits to take all the necessary measures so that the members of their staff susceptible to have access to these information:

- be committed to the same confidentiality obligations,
- be aware of the possible consequences of a breach of the present confidentiality agreement.

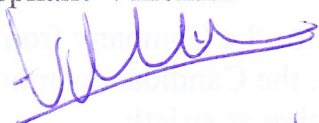

4, This commitment does not apply to the information which are public prior to their receipt from the Consultants and/or the Company on the one hand and to the information which the Candidate can prove that they were legally in his hands prior to their receipt from the Consultants and/or the Company on the other hand.

5, Duration of this commitment : 2 years as of signature date.

6, This Confidentiality Agreement is governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with French Law.

7, Any disagreement or dispute which may arise between the parties in relation with this Agreement shall be settled amicably through good faith negotiation. Any such dispute which cannot be so settled shall be referred to and finally settled by French Courts, in the French language.
